

Litoral RZ

Continental

Description

As one of the first blueleaf® varieties, Litoral RZ has become the market standard due to a proven ability to deliver top quality fruits under somewhat tough growing conditions. It is one of those unique varieties, while target bred for the autumn - winter - spring cycle in the cooler Mediterranean climates such as Adelaide, has also performed well in the milder sub-tropical summer production areas.

Key features:

- Fast and generative market leading blueleaf® variety
- Consistent production of uniform dark green fruit with a medium rib
- Best suited for unheated production
